

These are only some of the issues which will need to be addressed. What is wrong with letting the police contract expire and see over a reasonable amount of time what the effect will be without the extra coverage?

Editor's Note: The Mayor and Council have allowed the police protection contract with OCPD to expire without renewal.

BPW OLDHAM COUNTY FALL BALL COMMITTEE SEEKING DONATIONS

Proceeds to benefit H.O.S.T. House

Children

BPW/Oldham County will hold its sixth annual Fall Ball November 8 at the historic Camberley Brown Hotel in Louisville. Proceeds will benefit H.O.S.T. House in LaGrange, a program of the Home of the Innocents, is a non-profit agency that provides emergency and residential treatment for youth 13-17 years of age who have experienced abuse, abandonment or neglect. BPW/OC seeks corporate table sponsorships, artists, product, and service donations for live/silent auction, ticket purchases ($75 each), and cash contributions for in event. The Camberley Brown is offering special room rates at $79. Hotel reservations are due with full payment by September 15. Contact Linda Bolin at (502) 212-7409 or lindalbolin@aol.com for additional information.

BPW/Oldham County, part of BPW/USA, serving as advocate for working women since 1919, meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month at The Bank Oldham County, in Crestwood. Visitors are welcome. For more information about BPW/Oldham County, contact Amy Armitage at 254-0522 or via email at Racerb@ix.netcom.com or visit www.bpwoldhamco.org.

IRONMAN LUNCHEON SET

Meghan Adams, the daughter of Larry and Cindy Adams and a 2002 graduate of SOHS, has been awarded the Wilson and Virginia Gantt scholarship at Murray State University. She is majoring in nursing.

Crestwood Baptist Church will host an interdenominational men's luncheon on October 2, 2003, from 11:45-1:00 p.m. The guest speaker will be Bobbie Harris, of Friendship Manor. The "Ironman Luncheon" includes issues that face Christians in the workplace, community, and home and is open to all individuals. If possible, please make reservations no later than September 30 by calling 243-9998.

NEW TRASH COMPANY FOR THE CITY

Industrial Disposal Co. is the new trash company for the City of Pewee Valley. ID serves over 60 of the major cities and homeowners associations in the area and has offered the city much improved services at an excellent price. ID will be using the newest technology "automated" trucks, which require a standard trash cart for every resident. The carts, heavy duty with wheels and hinged lid, are available in 65 or 90 gallon size at no charge to the resident. If needed, a second cart will be provided at no charge.

You will receive your trash cart on Thursday or Friday, September 25th and 26th. You will also be receiving a recycling bin. The guidelines for acceptable items for trash, recycling and yard waste as well as instructions for the proper positioning of your cart will be attached to the inside lid of the cart. For proper pickup, PLEASE be sure to review this information.

Service days are WEDNESDAY for RECYCLING and THURSDAYS for TRASH. Your trash can and recycling bin needs to be out at the curb by 6:30 am on day of service.

Should you have any questions or concerns or need an additional or different size cart than the one you receive, please call ID Customer Service @ 638.9000

If you are currently leasing a trash can from Rumpke or have one of their recycling bins, you will need to call the company to have these items picked up, or you will likely continue to be charged for them. Call Rumpke at 568-3800.

MIMI BARRETT IS THE NEW CITY OFFICE MANAGER

At its September meeting, the Town Council unanimously voted to hire Mimi Barrett to serve as Pewee Valley City Office Manager. She will be at City Hall three days a week, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 10:00 A.M. to 1 P.M. Ms. Barrett is a Pewee resident and the mother of three girls, one at SOHS and the other two at Camden Station. Her husband owns Barrett Landscaping in Beuchel. Ms. Barrett was selected from a number of worthy applicants on the basis of her clerical skills, management experience and impressive computer expertise.
